SURE CURE FOR

Twenty-five Years' Without a Cure

The first indication of this disease, and in a child, is a cough, which may be taken as the approach of an attack. This hoarseness is a peculiar sign. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child begins to cough, or even after the cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack, or if used in many instances it will cure the cough and never disappoint. We have seen a single instance in which it has not proved effective. See the testimonials which show such a wide range of years' constant use without a failure, for sale by all druggists.

Call on Alfred Paul when you want a fine suit or overcoat. You can buy a suit or overcoat for $20.00 guaranteed. Also cleaning and repairing done on short notice. Shop at the hand, in Can Can building, with the shoe-maker.

A. C. Champagne, the fashionable Tailor, will clean and press your old suit making it look as new as if new; also dyeing at the lowest prices. All work guaranteed.

B. F. Graham & Co. have just received a new line of Long's china and crockery ware for the holiday trade. Call and see before buying elsewhere.

MAN COOK—Wants situation; thoroughly competent for restaurant or camp, but prefers to go out of town. Apply at Our office.

Scrofula, a Vile Inheritance.

Scrofula is the most obstinate of blood troubles, and is often the result of an inherited taint in the blood. S. S. S. is the only remedy which goes deep enough to reach Scrofula; it forces out every trace of the disease, and cures the worst cases.

My son, Charlie, was afflicted from infancy with scrofula, and he suffered so that it was impossible to dress him for three years. His head and body were a mass of sores, and his eyesight also became affected. No treatment was spared that we thought would relieve him, but he grew worse until his condition was indeed pitiable. He had almost despaired of his ever being cured, when by the advice of a friend we gave him S. S. S. (lawyer's special). A decided improvement was the result, and after he had taken a dozen bottles, not only was his former dreadful condition wholly recognized him. All the sores on his body have healed, his skin is perfectly clear and smooth, and he has been restored to perfect health.

For real blood troubles it is a waste of time to expect a cure from the doctors. Blood diseases are beyond their skill. Swift's Specific.

reaches all deep-seated cases which other remedies have no effect upon. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed purely vegetable, and contains no poison, mercury, or other mineral.

Christmas!

CHRISTMAS!

CHRISTMAS!

CHRISTMAS!

There is a holiday aspect about the store now. The Toys, and the counters and tables full of goods, herald the approach of Christmas as surely as if there were no calendars. The toy store is perhaps the most interesting spot, at least to the mind of every little child, and undoubtedly every little child's parent. There are dolls that are almost human, with real hair and eyes that open and close; steam engines that run with a puff! puff! just like big engines; toys that do all sorts of antics by simply winding up; toy guns; swords and equipment for the martial-spirited boy; trains of cars, wagons and all sorts of things to go by pulling or pushing. Noah in his ark never had such animals as you'll find here in make-believe. There's an almost indescribable array of little things, but to the childish heart how big and wonderful. Come and bring the children. Let them drop a letter in Santa Claus' mail box (in the Furniture Wareroom).

FOR MEN

Want to give, that's the question. You shouldn't be so hard to decide.

There's Neckwear, not the usual Christmas, hand-painted sort that men thank you for and never wear, but Neckwear in patterns and colorings and shapes, all in good taste. Just a little finer in quality, perhaps.

Suspenders, of silk or satin, some embroidered with fleur de lis and other designs; white kid ends and sterling silver or gold plated buckles, neatly boxed. These are not the usual gift suspenders, but are strictly high grade; $1.75 to $3.50.

FANCY VESTS. You've likely not thought of these as a present, but they are none the less acceptable. Men's clothing at its joyest is sombre enough. Fashion now sanctions a touch of color in Fancy Vests; $1 each.

Tek Fancy Scarf, a suit of pajamas, a Mackintosh or Umbrella. There's no end of things in our Men's Furnishing Stock that will make appropriate presents for the father, the brother or

CALENDARS FOR 1900

Pleasant reminders of Time's flight. Dainty, artistic little affairs, tied with silk cord or ribbon; 25 cents to $1. It's the thought, not the amount, that counts in giving.

STERLING SILVER NOVELTIES

Nail files, paper cutters, scale, blenders, ink stands, cuticle buffers, nail brushes, which brooms, tooth brushes, tooth-brush holders, nail polishers, cold cream jars.

Hair, military, nail, cloth and baby brushes, with ebony backs, mounted with sterling silver.

Ebony, imitation shell and ivory combs mounted with sterling silver and filigree work.

A host of little things, inexpensive, but thoroughly appropriate. It's surprising what a dollar will do in this stock.

CUTLERY AND PLATED WARE

Through a fortunate purchase we are enabled to sell Rogers' 3A plated spoons, $1.25 and $1.50 dozen for the tea and table sets, respectively. We've usually gotten a dollar more a dozen for these.

CARVING SETS

An elaborate five-piece set, pearl handles, with solid silver trimmings, at $28. A good, serviceable set for $8. Plenty of knives between these extremes. Pocket knives—an assortment that comprises knives for every need. All at the hardware counter.

In Your List of What to Give

Have You Included Furniture?

The word Furniture is so apt to suggest cumbersome, expensive pieces that you've probably overlooked the possibilities of furnishing in getting out of the "what to give." A Morris' chair, dressing table, small center table, a rocker, fancy mirror. Is this hint enough?
